

COMMUNITY CALENDAR

WANT YOUR EVENT LISTED? Community Calendar is made available free of charge to not-for-profit organisations to keep the public informed of special events and activities. Send item details to Star Weekly Community Calendar, Corner Thomsons Road and Keilor Park Drive, Keilor Park, 3042, or email to communitycalendar@starweekly.com.au. Deadline for copy and announcements is noon Tuesday.

Tennis open to all

Tennis regulars and people who have never picked up a racquet can have a hit at Macedon Tennis Club's open day this Sunday. There'll be free coaching, a barbecue, children's entertainment, and prizes. It's from 4-7pm.
■ www.macedontennisclub.com.au or 5426 1511

Valentine's Day picnic

Celebrate the 40th anniversary of Peter Weir's classic film Picnic at Hanging Rock at a twilight screening on Valentine's Day. Pack a picnic and bring a blanket for the only outdoor cinema event at Hanging Rock this year. Gates open 7pm and the film starts at dusk. Tickets: $25 adults, $10 children, $60 families.
■ www.mrsc.vic.gov.au/filmnight or 1300 888 802

Old fashioned cycling

Woodend's annual vintage bike ride from the Woodend clock tower to Hanging Rock and back, is on Saturday. Bring bikes old or new and dress up in old-time garb for this family ride. Starts 10am.
■ goo.gl/1sZ1lg

Champion your world

Find out more about Hume council's free enviro champions sustainability leadership program at an information session in Broadmeadows. This latest session will be at the Hume Global Learning Centre tomorrow from 7pm. The program teaches leadership, communications and advocacy.

■ www.hume.vic.gov.au

This is the meaning of life

A three-month course aimed at exploring the meaning of life starts at Sunbury Baptist Church on February 15. Sessions are every Sunday from 5.30pm.
■ 9740 7683

Type, or pen, your thoughts

A six-week creative writing class for beginners starts at Sunbury's Rupertswood Mansion on February 18. The Twilight School will be led by TAFE teacher Bruno Lettieri. Cost is $60 or $30 for concession holders.
■ 9744 0083 or Blettieri@scr.vic.edu.au

Flavours to savour

Restaurants will dish out special tasting dishes and wineries will offer cellar door samples at the first Taste of Kyneton festival this Sunday. Local beers and ciders will also be available at Kyneton racecourse from 11am-4pm. Tickets cost $12 pre-sale or $15 at the gate.
■ www.kyneton.org.au/tasteofkyneton

To market, to market

Sunbury's Market on the Green is back this Saturday. Check out handmade items and fresh produce at Sunbury Memorial Hall and Village from 9am-2pm.
■ 0409 55 FOLLOW Info Share

Ready, set for fitness

People needing to improve their fitness now have fewer excuses with free outdoor exercise classes being held at Sunbury's Lions Park. Hume council's eight-week Be Outdoor Active program includes weekly yoga classes on Mondays from 10am, Zumba on Wednesdays from 10am, and group fitness sessions from 6.30pm, Thursdays. Participants receive a free T-shirt. To register, visit www.hume.vic.gov.au/beoutdooractive.